

I am absolutely opposed to any weakening of the Indiana "no call" laws currently in place which would allow banks, or any other business I currently do business with, to contact me by phone for the purpose of solicitation.